dc_draino [UPDATE: The fact checkers are lying. I said that GOP electors sent a separate slate of electors, not the Democrat electors, which were the ones certified by each state listed in my post. NOTHING about my post is false - the fact-checkers are trying to suppress the actual facts] 🇺🇸 HUGE 🇺🇸 Do you know what happens next? When the Senate and House meet on January 6 to choose the President based on electoral college votes, objections can be raised about which electoral slate to use due to rampant election fraud. This means the House then votes for President, but each state only gets 1 vote per the 12th Amendment of the Constitution. Republicans have the lead 27-20 (PA, MN, and MI have split delegations). Do you know what that means? TRUMP WINS. GET READY 🇺🇸🔥
